3-pin super deluxe-iec computer power cable 1.75 meter for pc smps printer monitor-black

TECHNICAL SPECIFICATIONS & SUMMARY

[Power Cord] The 3 Pin Super Deluxe IEC Computer Power Cable is a durable and reliable power cord designed for electronic devices such as desktop computers, monitors, printers, UPS systems, and SMPS power supplies. It provides stable power transmission and secure connectivity for everyday use. This cable features a standard IEC C13 connector, which is commonly used in computers and office equipment. In addition, the strong outer insulation improves flexibility and protects the cable from daily wear and bending. Because of its high-quality copper conductor and sturdy build, the cable delivers reliable performance for both home and office setups. Furthermore, the 1.75-meter length offers convenient reach and better cable management. The plug-and-play design makes installation simple and quick without requiring any additional tools.
